

Art in The Bible

Bente Paus and the Nordic Bible Museum are extending an invitation to join a free webinar titled “Art in The Bible”, on Monday, August 23rd, at 6 pm.

Many artists have drawn inspiration from the Bible, and in museums across the world hangs valuable art inspired by the Bible. Plenty of books also contain art and illustrations created by artists influenced by the Bible.

Paus will in addition to this discuss how artistic expressions have developed within the Bible itself, and how well-known artists have contributed to shape our perception of the book. Through joining the webinar, you can embark on a unique art journey in the comfort of your own home. The event begins at 6 pm, and lasts for an hour.

To register, please visit the Bible Museum’s web page (nobimu.no).
